

George Dunbar
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Ave Washington, DC 20580
RE: Business Opportunity Rule R511993

Dear Sir or Madam: I am writing due to my concern about the proposed Business Opportunity Rule R511993. I think that in its presented form it could prevent me from continuing as a distributor with Xango, and destroy my small business. I have been an independent contractor for over 2 years. I began my business because I had found the healthful benefits of the Xango product were so good for me, and I wanted to share this with others. I also needed to earn some additional income. Please don't destroy my small business, as we need the extra income.

The newly-proposed waiting period will cast suspicion on our company. The 7-day waiting period is totally unnecessary because Xango already has a 90% payback policy for all products including distributor kits purchased by a salesperson. Our sales kits only cost $35.00. People buy all manner of other products for much higher prices, and don't have to wait 7 days. Under this proposed new rule I will need to keep very detailed records when I first speak to someone who is a prospect, and will then have to send in reports to my company. This is burdensome for a small home-based business. This proposed rule is BAD. Finally, there is the requirement of the disclosure of 10 prior purchasers nearest to the prospective purchaser. In this day of identity theft I am uncomfortable giving out personal info of persons to others who are strangers. I fear for the safety of women in my group who may become subject to sexual or racial harassment, so this part of the rule just won't fly! That is unless the FTC passes an addition to this rule which prohibits sexual or racial attacks related to this disclosure. Then the rule must also bind FTC to take direct enforcement action on said attacks with a special unit assigned to monitor actions related to said disclosure forms. This rule will not stop the Crooks -- they violate the current rules all the time. However, it will hurt those of us who try to be good citizens and play by the rules. Thank you for your time to read this letter. Please help us.

Sincerely,

George Dunbar
[REDACTED]